

Branksome Hall Asia, Korea's only international school for girls, registers another year of strong IB results and university acceptance for 2019, including Ivy League schools

- Average IB score of over 35 places Branksome Hall Asia among the top IB schools in the world
- 95% of graduates enter the top 100 universities and programs chosen by QS such as Cambridge University and the University of Chicago

[Branksome Hall Asia, Korea's only international school for girls / Photo courtesy of Faye Yang]

Branksome Hall Asia, the only international school for girls in Korea, announced this year's graduates' IB scores and university entrance results, and much like last year, the results are outstanding.

Students of Branksome Hall Asia (BHA) achieve a remarkable performance every year, and this year was no exception, with graduates reaching an average score of over 35 for their IB DP, greatly exceeding the 2019 global average of 29.6. Furthermore, 95% of this year's graduates put that success to good use by receiving acceptances from the world's top 100 universities and within the area of their program chosen by QS (Quacquarelli Symonds).

According to the university guidance counselor at BHA, the universities that this year's graduates were accepted into include: University of Chicago, Cornell University, Brown University, Johns Hopkins University, University of Cambridge, Imperial College London, London School of Economics, University of Toronto, McGill University, Peking University, University of Hong Kong, and many more.

Public

"We are extremely proud of the outstanding performance that our students have shown this academic year, which follows last year's success." said Principal Dr. Cinde Lock of Branksome Hall Asia. "This continued remarkable achievement is really a credit to our collaborative and supporting culture in addition to the prestigious IB education program, which is designed to help students find their aptitudes and strengths so they can focus on developing themselves." Dr. Lock added, "As a testament to our school's motto of 'High Expectations, High Support,' these results also come from the sincere commitment of our teachers and their constant support to imbue students with a deep respect and passion for learning."

Located in Jeju Island, Branksome Hall Asia is the only international school for girls in Korea. The sister school of Canada's esteemed 115-year old boarding school in Toronto, Branksome Hall Asia has garnered much interest from the education sector for adopting the IB curriculum for students at all levels, including PYP, MYP and DP.

Meanwhile, Branksome Hall Asia will be holding admissions events on August 2 at its Jeju campus and on August 9 at the Westin Chosun in Busan. For further information about admissions, parents and students are encouraged to go to the Admissions section of the school's website <https://www.branksome.asia/bhaadmissions>.

###